FOREWORD

Nearing the End of the 1977-78 School Year, We Students Wish to Express Our Appreciation for Both the School and Faculty.

We Are Proud to Have Been a Part of Lykens Christian School; Furthermore, We Highly Esteem the Values We Have Been Taught.

We Students Have Counted It a Privilege to Honor Our Christian Leaders. The Faculty and Administration Have Helped Us spiritually, Morally, Academically, and in Many Other Ways.

Congratulations to Mike Klinger Who Will Be Graduating and Going Out to Put Into Practice the Things He Acquired During His Years at L.C.S. We Wish You the Very Best, Mike, and May the Lord Be With You in All You Do.

Our Desire and Prayer Is That God Might Keep His Hand Upon This School That Others May Enjoy This Same Opportunity We've Had.

The Student Body

GUM

Chewing gum is lots of fun,
Until you get in trouble;
And teacher has her eye on you,
Waiting for your next bubble;

Teacher says it's bad for you,
And that you shouldn't chew it;
But as kids are, we know today,
They'll just go ahead and do it;

Teachers have a way today,
To prove the right from wrong;
It's a trip out to the woodshed,
And a board that's wide and long;

Now us kids sure learn our lesson,
It's very plain to see;
And chewing gum and doing wrong,
Are not the things for me.

by Michael Klinger

Farewell

Another school year has come and gone. What we have achieved will benefit everyone in the future. The achievements include scholastic development, spiritual experience and moral stability. These tools of excellence will benefit our graduate and all the undergraduates as the challenges of life come their way.

To our graduate, we wish a fruitful future as the will of God is unfolded in your life. Learning does not end on the day of graduation. We trust that the basics essential to further learning have been laid well.

God Bless You,

The Faculty
